When developing high-rise residential projects across the GTA, CentreCourt not only stands out from the crowd, but also leads them. Creating a uniquely urban lifestyle and experience starts with determining a AAA+ site. We examine hundreds of properties per year and only a handful meet our high bar - more than just location, a CentreCourt site is selected for its proximity to transit, amenities, as well as its ability to benefit from growth and employment opportunities - all inviting a higher level and quality of life.
